

DO YOU KNOW ABOUT SEXTORTION?

SEXTORTION IS NO JOKING MATTER,

AND IF I EVER WENT THROUGH SUCH A THING, I KNOW IT WOULD BE HARD. BUT WITH MY SISTER, I KNOW I WOULD BE ABLE TO GET THROUGH IT.

FRIENDS MAKE THE WORLD GREAT.

We are living in a digital world and mostly that's really easy to navigate, but sometimes it's really hard. Things can be weird and confusing, and when it comes to sextortion, we need to look out for our friends, look out for ourselves, and do our best to create digital spaces that we actually want to be in.

TELL YOUR CLOSEST FRIENDS [TODAY!] THAT THEY CAN TRUST YOU IF THIS EVER HAPPENS TO THEM.

IF A FRIEND NEEDS HELP TEXT "THORN" TO 741741

and a trained Crisis Text Line counselor will be there to provide support anonymously.

YOUR NEXT STEPS

SUPPORT YOUR FRIENDS

#1 FRIENDS HELP EACH OTHER

all the time. You can even help your friends before they need it, and right now is one of those times.

Sextortion is uncomfortable, and people going through it are usually pretty scared to tell their friends. Your friends need to know that you'll be there for them, even if something like sextortion happens. Tell them now – when everything is fine – and as often as possible.

Today, right now, tell your closest friends [or tell them all!] that you'll be there for them. Use the script below:

"You need to know that if someone ever tries to use an intimate photo of you to get you to do something you don't want to do - I will be here for you, I won't judge you, and we will figure it out together."

#2 SHARE THE VIDEO

Did this video make you laugh, but also teach you about something serious? Share it with all of your friends so they can be as informed as you are about what sextortion is and how it happens.

IMPORTANT!

When you share it, let your friends know that you'll be there for them no matter what.

#3 DON'T FORWARD PICS

This one is really simple - if somebody sends you a sexual image of somebody else, DO NOT share it.

It's not up to you to decide who should see their body, so don't forward the image to anyone.

PROTIP:

You might be considered legally responsible if you forward these images.

#4 CELEBRATE YOUR FRIENDS

And lift others up. Sextortion can lead to bullying and make people feel really alone. Instead, make your friends feel great by telling them what you think makes them unique and why you love that specific thing. You can also join a community of people fighting online harassment at HeartMob [<https://iheartmob.org/>] and send supportive messages to victims of sextortion and other types of harassment. On the flip side, if you know somebody experiencing sextortion, they can join Heartmob and receive support.

#5 LEARN MORE

Without laws on the books, victims can have few legal options to pursue. Learn more about the laws in your state [<http://www.cagoldberglaw.com/states-with-revenge-porn-laws/>] and check out our tips on how to advocate for change [<https://www.wearethorn.org/blog/be-an-advocate/>].
